Re: philSTAR.com News Article

Gentlemen:

This refers to your letter dated May 30, 2013 seeking clarification and/or confirmation of the subject news article entitled "Vulcan reorganization seen early next year" that reported in part, to wit:

MANILA, Philippines - Vulcan Industrial & Mining Corp., controlled by the Ramos family of National Book Store, is expected to complete its corporate reorganization in the first quarter next year.

From this series of corporate transactions, Vulcan will become the vehicle for the backdoor listing of National Book Store, Inc. which is poised for a double-digit growth this year, a company official said.

"I think it's more reasonable to complete it in the first quarter of 2014," Vulcan treasurer Adrian Ramos told reporters after the company's annual stockholders meeting.

We hereby confirm that Mr. Adrian Ramos indeed gave the above statement to representatives of the media at the sidelines right after the stockholders' meeting held yesterday.

As regards the information on the revenues and new stores of National Book Store, Inc. as stated in the said article, the Company is not in a position to confirm or deny the same considering that Mr. Adrian Ramos spoke thereon in his capacity as the authorized representative of National Book Store, Inc.

Lastly, we would like to clarify that Vulcan Materials Corporation is no longer a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. The Company sold the same to Anglo Philippine Holdings Corporation, as previously disclosed to the Exchange.

Thank you very much and we hope that this sufficiently clarifies the matter.

Very truly yours,

IRIS MARIE U. CARPIO-DUQUE
